A.Thomas Papagiannakis, Ph.D., P.E., F.ASCE

Dear Dr. Papagiannakis,

Congratulations! You have been selected by the G-I Board of Governors to provide the 2019 Carl L. Monismith Lecture. In selecting you for this prestigious honor, the committee particularly noted your sustained leadership and effort in emphasizing the importance of geotechnical features in pavement systems.

We hope you can personally accept this award, which consists of a plaque and lecture. Please contact G-I Director Brad Keelor (bkeelor@asce.org) to discuss further details about the lecture and your award presentation.

Please direct your attention to the important enclosures. As you will see, we ask your assistance in preparing publicity about your award. The attachments will guide you through the process of assembling requested documents and making your travel plans.

Please accept my personal congratulations on this important milestone in your career.

Sincerely,

Beth Gross

Request for Biographical Information and Photograph

To appropriately prepare for the presentation of your award, the Society requests the following information.

▶ AWARD INFORMATION FORM (form accompanies)

Please submit one glossy color head-and-shoulders photograph of you alone. Electronic photographs are acceptable, provided they are submitted in JPG format. Group winners (six or more individuals) should make an effort to provide a group photo, if possible. Photos should be 3"x5", 4"x6", or 8"x10" in size. Recent (three years), professional quality photos are preferred; a resolution of 300dpi is needed for electronic photographs. Please do not submit passport photos. All original photos will be returned.

▶ APPROVAL TO DISSEMINATE INFORMATION FORM (form accompanies)

This item is optional. We would like to ensure you receive appropriate recognition in your career and offer to send notification of your award to whomever you deem most appropriate. If you wish for the Society to correspond with your employer or the person you deem significant to your career, please provide the requested information on the attached form and return it to the Honors and Awards Program. We will see you receive a copy of ASCE correspondence distributed to your designee/s.

Please respond no later than February 1, 2019
